

INCULTUM marketing and social branding in tourism destinations

The importance of marketing and social branding in tourism destinations - Sections and course structure

Introduction to the course
Section 1 Marketing and branding principles	Section 2 Promotion and storytelling	Section 3 Local's involvement
UNIT 1.1 Definitions and theoretical framework	UNIT 2.1 Communication: principles	UNIT 3.1 Marketing and social branding in peripheral destinations
FOCUS: Planning a tourist experience	UNIT 2.2 Marketing communication	UNIT 3.2 Engaging visitors
UNIT 1.2 Marketing logic and planning	FOCUS: Examples of DMO advertising to promote destinations	FOCUS: The role of local stakeholders in destination branding
UNIT 1.3 Branding & local identity	UNIT 2.3 Engaging visitors	UNIT 3.3 The role of local stakeholders in destination branding
Further information materials + tools	FOCUS: Gamification	Further information materials + tools
Self-assessment	Further information materials + tools	Self-assessment

The new academic course on marketing and social branding in tourism destinations is available in the INCULTUM Training Portal, for free access.

The contents have been developed under the scientific coordination of the University of Pisa, partner of the INCULTUM project. The course is made of three thematic subsections each composed by several subsection which cover both general marketing and branding issues and many specifics of tourism and place branding, with a special focus on peripheral destinations and local's involvement. It is all based on tutorial videos supplemented by additional material and quizzes for self-assessment.

