

Challenge Brief

Document which sets forth the overall challenge for long term preservation of digital files to be addressed by the PREFORMA Research & Development actions, i.e. two strategies that empower memory institutions to gain control over the technical properties of preservation files: development of an open-source conformance checker, and establishing an ecosystem around an open source 'reference' implementation.