

Implementation checker

A PREFORMA term for the component which performs a comprehensive check of the standard specifications listed in the standard document.?

This module verifies whether a file has been produced according to the specifications of a standard file format.