

ILUCIDARE Playground: Cracking the future of heritage

Explore the multifaceted contribution heritage makes to sustainable and inclusive societies to tackle societal challenges through innovation and to engage in multicultural dialogue.

The ILUCIDARE project is happy to invite you to participate at this open initiative focused on sparking discussion, networking, international exchanges and innovation.

All those that have an interest in CH and innovation can leave their contribution to the debate and to aligning international and EU actions for heritage and international cultural relations.

As all ILUCIDARE events which stimulate interdisciplinary interactions and networking among participants also this upcoming meeting will offer a special opportunity for exchange experiences in heritage-led innovation and international relations and create network.

The event is co-organised by ROCK, RURITAGE, ECHOES and CLIC projects and it is divided into a morning and an afternoon full programme.
