

Portuguese INCULTUM pilot on Al-Sabîl - Revue d'Histoire, d'Archéologie et d'Architecture Maghrébines

The latest paper about the Portuguese pilot of the INCULTUM project has been published in French in the journal Al-Sabîl - Revue d'Histoire, d'Archéologie et d'Architecture Maghrébines, from the University of La Manouba in Tunisia.

The articles in this special thematic issue were presented in a Tunisian-Portuguese study day with the theme: The spirit of place and the organization of space in the Mediterranean: encounters of history, archaeology, architecture and landscape (L'esprit des lieux et l'organisation de l'espace en Méditerranée: rencontres de l'histoire, de l'archéologie, de l'architecture et du paysage).

The event took place on September 30, 2022 at the Faculty of Letters, Arts and Humanities, University of Manouba (H.-H. Abdelwaheb Room).

Prof. Desidério Batista of the University of Algarve presented the case study about Campina de Faro, addressed in the INCULTUM pilot, with a paper titled: The landscape and the hydraulic heritage as the basis for cultural tourism (Le paysage et le patrimoine hydraulique comme base du tourisme culturel).
