Webinar about object and face recognition algorithms on historic photos

27th January h. 02:00 PM CET.
In the National Archives of Estonia some object and face recognition algorithms and techniques have been tested and implemented on the historic photos of the archives.The webinar describes the work done and shows the implementations in live systems.

Speakers: Mr Sven Lepa and Mr Lauri Leht from the National Archives of Estonia.

This is a webinar from the Open Preservation Foundation.
It is open to anyone interested - Registration form available here

OPF members receive priority registration and also exclusive access to the archive of webinar recordings.